THE BATTLE OF GALLIPOLI
PATRIOTIC SONG HIT.
WHAT DO YOU THINK OF AUSTRALIA NOW?
HEROES OF THE DARDANELLES.

Lyrics by J. W. BENSON.
Composed by FELIX LE ROY.

March time.

Intro.

They're missing from the Factory and they're The band played 'Tipperary' as they missed from the Farm. They're missing from the City Office too, gaily marched away, 'God bless your mother dear and sweetheart Nell,
heard the call of duty and they bravely shouldered arms,
long to old companions, we'll come back again some day,' ev’ry true Australian Son should do. Far a-just a soldier’s part-ing fare thee well. To-way from home and loved ones they have sailed a-cross the sea, To pro-day we learn the sto-y as we read the pa-ers o’er, That

test our King and country, and our glor-i-ous liber-ty.
some of our brave he-
toes we will see again no more.

CHORUS Tempo di March.

(g)
What do you think of New-Zealand now? They have shown what they can do; In Freedom's name they fought and died

Brave deeds that led the way He-ros of the Dar-da-nelles, we're proud of you to-day.

"JACKA! V.C."
(PATRIOTIC MARCH SONG.)

Words by Bert Warne & Fred Mills.
Composed by Joe Slater.

Intro.

Moderato.

We've sung and talked of Dardanelles, and the many Victories won,
At times we've praised the gal-lant deeds of each and ev'-ry son, Tho' many of our heroes true have bravely fought and

name will live throughout our Sunny Land, Aus-tralian born we're proud to say, have kept the flag un-

died;
There's one we'll take our hats off to, and nobly sing with pride.

furled:
We've shown that we can hold our own throughout this bit of world.
CHORUS

Jacka, V. C. It's proud of you are we, your duty you have nobly done, Like a true Australian Son. Far off...

.... in the Dardanelles you've made a name 'tis true. Australia always will rejoice, To know that she has Sons like you, you....
